A Christmas tree cut at Dalhousie East, King County, Nova Scotia, is to grace the living-room of the White House during the Christmas season. Around it President Roosevelt and the members of his household will gather for the customary festivities. It is 15 feet high, a fine looking fir, and Clifford Wright is the man who cut it down before its shipment with other trees from New Germany, N.S.

Our new Governor General's address at Convocation Hall in Toronto was at once a literary event and a practical talk on the cultivation of personality. The voice was that of Lord Tweedsmuir, whose thought and style were those so well known to the readers of John Buchan. Perhaps never before has Canada had so scholarly and profound a thoughtful a Governor-General. Lord Dufferin was an orator of the old school, who roused Canadians to the vision of a great future for the Dominion and he exercised a statesmanlike influence in his day. In Lord Tweedsmuir Canada has acquired a new man of letters of first rank in current literature.

A black and white illustration showing a boy and a girl. The boy, on the right, has dark, spiky hair and is wearing a light-colored shirt with a dark vest. He is looking intently at a book held by a girl on the left. The girl has her hair in a bun and is wearing a plaid dress. They are both looking at the book with interest.

There is plenty of room and freedom under present system for all schools of thought, and it is by free discussion of political and intellectual problems that progress is made. But progress does not necessarily mean revolution. Progress has come by way of revolution in countries where the people have been crushed under an autocracy, such as France before the revolution and Russia under Czar. No such conditions exist in Canada today. Every Canadian is free to develop his or her personality, and can achieve individual distinction, however humble their sphere in life. It is by being ourselves that we develop character and give to society—which makes life interesting and the nation truly great—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

Printers' Jobs Are Not Affected By New Tariff

United States Publications Will Continue to Be Printed in Canada, Announcement States.

TORONTO, Nov. 28. — Three hundred and fifty thousand and Montreal printing press employees who have been fearful of losing their jobs as a result of the new magazine tariff, are given assurance today of continued employment.

Work Not Affected.

Announcement was made yesterday afternoon by Mary Bell, manager of the Garden City Press, after talks on publishing dates of the tariffs on magazines entering Canada from the United States did not affect the printing in Canada of the United States magazines.

Mr. Bell said that the Garden City Press employs approximately 350 people on its publishing staff in Toronto and Montreal, and Street and Smith maintained an open market for the buying of their publications was contemplated in which Canadians who could write the editorial content of the publications were invited to be members of the staff.

The editorial offices of the publications were located in New York.

N. MARK HAS MINK FARM IN LINDSAY

Norman Mark, popular local milkman, has an interesting addition to his farm in the village of Lindsay. It is the raising of mink for the market and he has several of these interesting little animals on his premises at the present time.

Mr. Mark purchased these mink from Quebec and hopes to increase their numbers and to realize a profit from the sale of the valuable skins.

It is an interesting study to watch these little animals as they covet about their cages and to see them eat for any kind of food that they like. Mr. Mark sometimes goes hunting in the woods and tries to kill a fox that is particularly wary to these animals. The mink are not very tame and they like to chase anyone's fingers as several persons have learned to their regret.

Canon Marsh Honored By Ministers

POPEYE —

Mr. Macdonald told of his first interest in seeing as many parents and friends present at the exercises, and hoped that all exercises in the future would be successful.

Mr. Cecil C. Frost, considered as the center of the exercises, was the town by Mr. Anderson, president of the L.C.I. board. Mr. Frost spoke of the art of public speaking and told how everyone should study to further the art. Mr. Frost said that you had nothing to say to sit down, and not to memorize facts, but to say to be understood, but to speak naturally. He congratulated Mr. Anderson on his brilliant future.

Humanity Comes First, Sheriffs Instructed

Superior to Creditors' Claims, Says Attorney-General

The head of Ontario's highest court ruled that the law of humanity and common sense is superior to the claims of creditors. The ruling was made in a case involving the estate of a man who had died, leaving a large sum of money. The court ruled that the money should be used for the benefit of the community, rather than being distributed to creditors.

Prizes Donated for Bazaar

Prizes for the bazaar were donated by the Catholic Women's League of St. Mary's Church and the St. Mary's Church. The prizes included a large number of books, a set of dishes, and a number of other items. The bazaar was held in the church hall and was a great success.

Christmas EDITION

"Bless you, no! I don't mind being called old-fashioned. 'Cause I really am old, you see. Older'n anybody — even your grandmaw an' grandpaw — can remember. How old? Well, now you've got me there . . . I don't rightly know. Got it written down somewheres . . . but it's sort of slipped my mind. But as for being old-fashioned, Santy's real proud of the distinction.

"But don't you go callin' me an institution, like I was an orphan asylum or something. Old Santy doesn't like that — no, sirree! You don't think an institution could remember just what every little boy and girl in the whole wide world wants for Christmas, do you? Takes a real live body to do that! An' I got a good memory, too.

"Yes, sir! Little boy, weren't you here to see me about twenty-eight or thirty years ago? No? Well, now, reckon it must have been your paw. Same hair an' eyes as you, only he wanted a Noah's Ark 'stead of a streamlined train.

"Sure, I remember all your maws an' paws. Your grand-daddies, too. An' I'll probably be a-settin' right here to talk to your little uns an' their's when they come along.

"'Cause old Santy'll come a-drivin' back year after year. Long as there's any love an' sweetness left in the world an' any children to climb on his lap an' whisper in his ear an' hang up their stockings on the night before Christmas."

" . . . Long as there's any love an' sweetness left in the world . . . "

PLEASANT VALLEY W. I. HOLD ELECTION N. OF OFFICERS

PLEASANT VALLEY. Dec. 11—Her responding with a Scripture verse bearing on Christmas, the regular monthly meeting of the Pleasant Valley Women's Guild met at the home of Miss Lillian Knight on Thursday evening last. Dec. 11th, with an attendance of 12 ladies.

Meeting opened with the prayer of Mrs. William Tatum, in the presence of singing the Institute Obedience to the Great Power.

In the absence of the Secretary, Miss Quentin Barret, the minutes of the meeting were taken by Mrs. Louis Meyers. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The business was then discussed. It was moved by Mrs. Elmer Martin and seconded by Mrs. William Amherst, that the Institute be for a ladies' application for the "Children's Guild" in Lindsay, and that the president, Mrs. Tatum, and the secretary, Mrs. Barret, act as a committee to solicit contributions for the Christmas fund.

Moved by Mrs. W. B. Cunningham and seconded by Mrs. J. L. Tatum, that the secretary send its thanks to Mrs. Mrs. H. Cunningham, Treasurer, Mrs. H. B. Ryder, Secretary, Mrs. Sarah McMillan, Treasurer, Mrs. Walter Roodman, and the ladies who have contributed to the Christmas fund. The ladies then adjourned to meet again on Thursday evening next.

Mrs. Joe Lee and Mrs. P. Smith were appointed as a committee to purchase "Christmas Eve" for the shut-in of the community.

Moved by Mrs. Smith and seconded by Mrs. MacMoyne, that the secretary and Christmas Eve be held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Tatum.

The ladies then adjourned to meet again on Thursday evening next.

Reflections on Yuletide Spirit

WHAT GOES ON IN THE MIND OF A CHRISTMAS GIFT SHOPPING HOUSEWIFE THIS MORNING?

"Shopping" means "making Christmas gifts" for the family. It is a time when the housewife is busy with the thought of the people she loves and the things they will like.

With a benevolent spirit, she goes to the shops and looks for the things that will bring joy to the faces of the people she loves. She thinks of the children and the things they will like, and she thinks of the husband and the things he will like.

Maybe the best thing she can buy is a pair of slippers for the husband. Maybe the best thing she can buy is a pair of slippers for the children. Maybe the best thing she can buy is a pair of slippers for the whole family.

There is no doubt that the housewife is a very busy person this time of year. She is busy with the thought of the people she loves and the things they will like. She is busy with the thought of the Christmas spirit and the things that will bring joy to the faces of the people she loves.

So, when you see a housewife in a Christmas gift shop, you will know that she is a very busy person. She is busy with the thought of the people she loves and the things they will like. She is busy with the thought of the Christmas spirit and the things that will bring joy to the faces of the people she loves.

Have Bearing On Meisner Case.
Pegram Still Free

LONDON, Ont., Dec. 11. — The event most devoutly wished for by all police agencies since the muddle over the imprisonment of David

When Michael McCordell, confessed "Three-Fingered Abe" of the snatch was arrested in a gunfire chase in Indiana last summer, his first bombshell was a confession in which he strove with every emphasis at his command to lift all suspicion from his friend, "Ted Meisner".

Since McCordell went on to Kingston to do his twelve-year "stretch" authorities have realized that something would have to be done about the Melner situation. Today it was announced that Attorney-General Reebuck, while in Ottawa for the Provincial conference, would take advantage of the opportunity to discuss the Melner matter with the Department of Justice. Meanwhile, the "heat" has been put on the hunt for Knowles and the other al-

Detective-Sergeant Ted Weeks of the R.C.M.P. who has been a leader in the hunt for the kidnappers, has been working continuously with United States G-Men. A dozen times in recent weeks the officers have been on Knowles' trail. He is reported to have left a trail of burglaries and robberies across the three States, but the officers never caught up to him. Now that they have him, the first question is: What has he to say about Meisner? Would He Help Meisner.

Will he support McCardell's story that Meisner was invited into the snatch but that he refused to take part in it? If so, it will help to free Meisner without much formalities.

If he gives the De to McCardell and supports the claims of Bannon Meisner will be worse off for the newest arrest. This afternoon Norman F. Newton, Crown Attorney and special prosecutor on the kidnap, was notified by the Attorney General's Department that the arrest had been effected. A warrant has been rushed to Ottawa, Illinois and extradition proceedings will be simplified and he might reach trial at the January Supreme Court An-

TRAP SPRUNG
Ottawa, Ill., Dec. 11.—A trap set by United States Justice Department agents snapped shut today on two alleged kidnapers of John S. Labatt, wealthy Canadian brewer, ending a fourteen-month hunt over most of North America.

The pair were nabbed after a lively street chase in downtown Ottawa by four Federal officers and Be-geant Ted Weeks of the A.C.M.F. Their arrest was officially confirmed later by J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Justice Department's Bureau of Investigation in Washington.

one of the suspects, Russell Knowles of Detroit—named as one of the three ring-leaders in the kidnap plot—walked into a hotel here this morning. Knowles came to visit his alleged crony in crime, who registered at the hotel as John J. Webber Gary, Ind., but was identified by the Justice Department as Herman Kierdorff.

that occupied by two Federal men. Sleeping on the same floor was Herman Herbst of Joliet, arrested with the other two and jailed on charge of carrying concealed weapons.

The Labatt abduction plot was alleged to have been hatched in Detroit at the Marquette Gardens.

Milk Bottle Fund to Assist Stocking Fund

Through Courtesy of Mr. N. Mark, Milk Bottles Will be Distributed to Stores and Factories in Order that all may Donate even in a small way to the Stocking Fund—Now Everyone Can Share With Those in Need.

Norman Mark, president, National Milk Producers' Federation, feeling that the Stocking Fund is not receiving the response of other years, suggested the Post with an idea which would have the effect of increasing the amount of money for the needy children and families of London.

Mr. Mark feels that if milk bottles were distributed to every store and factory, the Post would be able to suggest the response of other years. The money would be retained to add to the Stocking Fund. The Post would be able to suggest the response of other years. The money would be retained to add to the Stocking Fund. THELMA TO'D SEEN WITH STRANGE MAN

Witness Suggests Access Alive Hours after He Was Supposed Dead.

Pour on Church Steps

Los Angeles, Dec. 25. — A witness today told the county grand jury to lay the body of the late Thelma Todd on the steps of the church where she was buried.

W. E. Kemmer, guard store property, said he was "absolutely positive" of his identification of the blue-eyed film star in company with a strange man. Two customers also saw her, he testified.

The testimony came as a blow to the grand jury's first day of body tracking over the events of Broadway night and Sunday, December 14 and 15, when Todd was last seen alive.

Prior had withdrawn from the investigation. The accused who were arrested the day after the slaying of James from the evidence of her, after a pay party Sunday night.

Person said a woman he is certain was Todd entered his store on the night of the slaying and was seen by him to go to a telephone booth.

"She came into the store shortly after 11 o'clock," he said, "and I saw her go to a telephone booth. I saw her go to a telephone booth. I saw her go to a telephone booth."

He said he noticed her high-heeled shoes were "a little bit off" and she was a "real good looking girl." He said he saw her go to a telephone booth.

The witness said the couple went together after the slaying. He said he saw her go to a telephone booth.

"A fellow named Hendrickson," he said, "came in and told me he had seen that woman and the man standing on the steps of a church. He said he saw her go to a telephone booth."

Person accused another of being the man who was seen with Todd. He said he saw her go to a telephone booth.
